

Role and qualifications as defined by the SIR Bylaws and SIR Board of Directors

SIR at-large directors are voting members of the SIR Board of Directors. The board of directors is the chief governing and policymaking body of SIR. The board is empowered to carry out the business of the society and is responsible for fiduciary oversight. It is responsible for overseeing and transacting the business necessary to achieve SIR's goals and to fulfill its mission.

Qualifications

- Shall have been a Member in good standing for at least three years
- Shall have shown commitment to the Society by active service on an SIR committee or task force as a member or chair for a minimum of three years
- Shall be actively practicing interventional radiology or have practiced for a minimum of ten years
- Shall adhere to all SIR member, volunteer, and leadership policies, to include possession of the highest ethical standards, disclosure and mitigation of all potential conflicts of interest, and strict compliance with local and national antitrust laws

Specific duties of the position

- Serve as a strategic leader who understands the SIR mission and vision and can link the duties of this position with the strategic goals of the society.
- Manage special projects as requested by the executive committee or board of directors.
- Represent SIR at meetings as requested by the executive committee or board of directors.
- Provide liaison to divisions and committees as requested.

Appointment and term in office

The position of at-large director is an appointed position with a term of two years. There is an option to apply for one additional two-year term. Board terms begin at the adjournment of the SIR Annual Members' Business Meeting. At-large directors are nominated by the SIR and SIR Foundation Nominating Committee and appointed by the SIR Board of Directors.

Time commitment

The at-large director is expected to devote the necessary time for society business during their term.

They are expected to attend the following meetings:

- Virtual and in person meetings of the SIR Board of Directors
- SIR Members' Annual Business Meeting
- Additional board meetings and conference calls as needed

Compensation/reimbursement

The at-large director receives no compensation for serving. Travel expenses for approved SIR travel are reimbursed per the SIR Leadership Travel Policy.